

SUMMER HOUSE

Application Terms and Conditions

These Application Terms and Conditions (Terms) govern the application and selection process for Temptation Island South Africa (Programme). The Streaming Service and Goat Originals (Pty) Ltd are referred to together as the Producers. By submitting an application through the Summer House entry portal each applicant agrees to be bound by these Terms.

These Terms apply to the application and selection process only. Any applicant selected to participate in the Programme will be required to enter into a separate participant agreement and comply with all applicable programme rules.

1. Application procedure

To apply, you must complete the online application and upload the requested application video and photograph through Summer House entry portal .

Applications will be accepted only during the application period displayed on Summer House entry portal. Late applications will not be accepted.

Submitting an application does not guarantee that an applicant will be contacted, shortlisted, selected or permitted to participate in the Programme. The Producers may request further information from shortlisted applicants.

2. Singles eligibility and acknowledgements

You confirm and warrant that:

- you are at least 21 years old at the time of application;
- you are a permanent legal resident of South Africa and may be required to provide proof of identity and travel eligibility;
- you are not married;
- you are not in a committed romantic relationship;
- you do not have any minor children who reside with you at the time of application or participation;
- you have the legal capacity to apply, have no conflicting legal obligations and may travel if selected; and
- you will not engage in unlawful conduct or conduct that is reasonably likely to bring the Producers or the Programme into disrepute.

3. Selection, information and eligibility checks

The Producers' decisions concerning applications, selection and participation are final. The Producers are not required to provide reasons for their decisions, and you agree not to challenge or appeal them.

If shortlisted, you may be asked to provide original identification documents, proof of travel eligibility and other information required to verify the information supplied in the application. You may also be asked to participate in interviews, background checks, biokinetic, psychological and medical assessments. Full details of any such assessment will be provided in advance.

You consent to the Producers processing the personal information supplied in connection with the application and selection process for the purposes of assessing suitability and selecting participants for the Programme, in accordance with applicable law, including POPIA.

You warrant that all information supplied is true, accurate and complete, and that your application materials do not infringe any third-party rights.

4. Application materials, publicity and rights

If you attend any interview, audition, assessment or other selection activity but are not selected as participants, you irrevocably assign to the Producers all copyright and other rights in your contributions made in connection with the application and selection process. This includes interviews, audition footage, photographs, likenesses, profiles, voices, performances, comments and any literary, artistic or musical material submitted or created for that purpose.

The Producers may use, exploit and license those contributions, in whole or in part, worldwide, in perpetuity, in all media and formats now known or later developed, including for the Programme and related publicity, research and marketing.

If you become participants, The streaming Service will coordinate publicity, digital and social-media activity relating to your involvement in the Programme from the application process until three months after the final broadcast of the Programme, unless the Producers notify you otherwise.

The Producers may amend these Terms, the application rules and the participation rules where reasonably necessary for the Programme. Updated terms will be made available on Summer House entry portal , and publication there will constitute notice to applicants.

5. If selected

The Producers have no obligation to produce, complete, distribute or broadcast the Programme, even if you are selected. The Producers may discontinue, postpone or terminate the Programme or the application process at their discretion, without remuneration to you.

If selected, you must be available to travel and participate for the period and at the location(s) designated by the Producers, and must make themselves available for interviews, publicity and other Programme-related activities reasonably required by the Producers.

If selected, you must enter into the required participant agreement with the Producers and/or another relevant party. Failure to do so will result in disqualification.

You grant the Producers an irrevocable performer release and consent to the Producers photographing, filming, recording, editing, broadcasting, rebroadcasting, publishing and communicating your performances to the public, including for promotional purposes related to the Programme, without additional remuneration. You waive any moral rights in those performances to the extent permitted by applicable law.

6. Disqualification

The Producers may disqualify you, without compensation, at any stage of the application process or Programme if you:

- provide information that is untruthful, inaccurate, misleading or incomplete;
- breach these Terms, the Programme rules or a participant agreement;

- are or become ineligible, including by reason of a conflict of interest or a material change in circumstances; or
- are employees of the Producers, their affiliates, subsidiaries, agents or contractors connected with the Programme, or are otherwise disqualified by the Producers.

You will not be employees of the Producers by reason of applying for or participating in the Programme and will not be entitled to employee benefits.

7. Confidentiality and media enquiries

You must not disclose to any third party, without the Producers' prior written consent, information relating to the Programme, the application or selection process, your potential or actual participation, the production team, other applicants or participants, or any other non-public information connected with the Producers or the Programme. If approached by the media, you must immediately refer the enquiry to the Producers.

8. Liability, indemnity and governing law

Participation in the application and selection process is voluntary and at your own risk. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Producers are not liable for loss, damage, illness, accident, theft or injury arising from or connected with the application, audition, selection process or participation in the Programme, including travel.

You indemnify the Producers, their affiliated and subsidiary companies, officers, directors, employees and agents against claims, costs, damages and reasonable legal costs arising from your breach of these Terms, infringement of third-party rights, or false, inaccurate or misleading information supplied by you.

These Terms are governed by South African law. The South African courts have exclusive jurisdiction over disputes arising from these Terms.

By clicking 'Submit', you confirm that you have read, understood and accept these Terms.
